War Tax Stamps, "Taxa de Guerra", 1919

ISSUE.

Issued during three months in 1919 as a postal war tax stamp. It was authorised for use on domestic mail. The printed in three values and applied to African / Colonial duty stamps of the time. As these stamps were never issued, due to the war having ended, they were overprinted "Taxa de Guerra" and used up on normal mail and telegrams - black for postage and red for telegrams.
